Elba Council acknowledges passing of former city leader

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba City Council met Monday evening, June 10, for a regular meeting with a quorum present. Mayor Tom Maddox and Council member Bryan Grimes were both out of town and unable to attend the meeting.

Mayor Pro Tem Jane Brunson presided.

Prior to the start of the council meeting, a public hearing was held regarding an application to sell alcohol for the Elba Travel Center. This business, located on Alabama Highway 203 in Elba had a license to sell alcohol previously; but, a change in ownership required a new application process.

There was no public input during the public hearing; therefore, when the council addressed the alcohol license approval in the open meeting, it was passed by unanimous consent of those present.

In her report to council

The Elba City Council acknowledged the June 8th passing of former Elba Mayor Ricky Haywood during Monday night's council meeting. Haywood served as mayor from 1992-1996.

members, city clerk Sally Bane noted the garbage truck currently is down. She said garbage is still being picked up daily, but it is taking longer due to usage of an older truck that requires someone to ride the back and dump the garbage into the truck.

"Please make sure with the summer hours [for city employees] that your garbage cans are out by the road no later than 6 a.m. on your pickup day," Bane said.

Bane also noted the passing of former Mayor Ricky Haywood on Saturday, June 8th. She said he served as Mayor of Elba from 1992-1996 and still resided in the city at the time of his death.

Haywood's funeral services were held Tuesday, June 11, at Hayes Funeral Home in Elba.

"Please keep the Haywood family in your prayers during this time of loss," Bane said.

Also, during the meeting, interim Police Chief Shayne Arnett introduced a new officer to council members. He said the officer came to Elba from Samson.

The next city council meeting will be Monday, June 24, at 5:30 p.m. at Elba City Hall.

Elba city clerk reminds public of upcoming June 24 public hearing for Jack's Family Restaurants

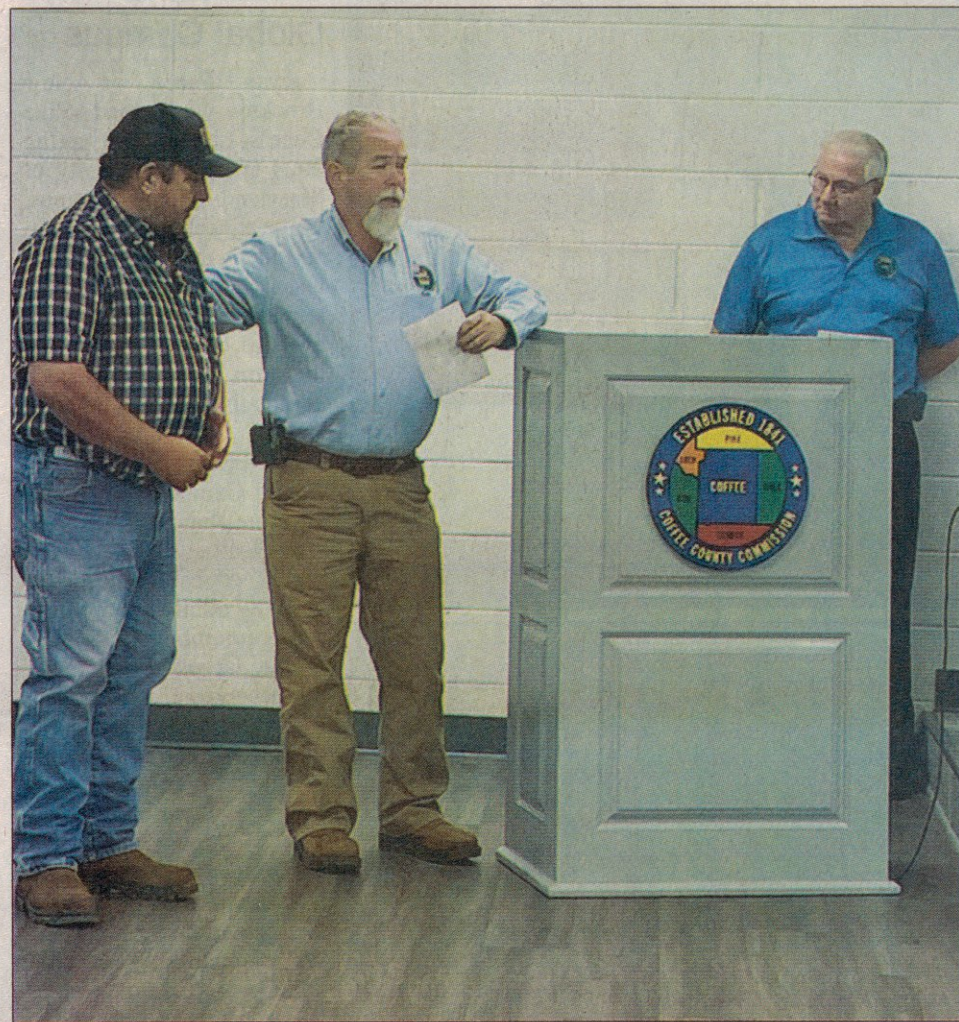

Notice is hereby given that Monday, June 24, at 5 p.m. at the City of Elba City Hall located at 200 Buford St, Elba, the City Council of the City of Elba, Alabama will hold a meeting, which will constitute a public meeting, to consider, discuss, vote upon, and take other action authorizing and approving a Project Development Agreement between the City and Jack's Family Restaurants, LP ("Jack's"), under which Jack's will acquire property, construct and operate a Restaurant within the corporate limits of the City.

The City will assist in the form of a sales tax rebate of seventy percent (70%) of the currently unobligated or non-reserved sales taxes generated by the Restaurant, for a period of no more than 10 years, and in an amount of no more than $500,000.00 in total, for the purpose of promoting the development of commercial property within the city limits of Elba which is projected to create a significant number of full and part time jobs. The City believes the restaurant development together with the provision of the assistance will have at least the following public benefits: promote and continue economic and industrial development within the City, increase the City's tax revenue, provide additional employment opportunities for the City's citizens and otherwise promote the health, welfare, and prosperity of the citizens of the City.

Further, the City will seek to determine at the public meeting whether the expenditure of public funds as described in this notice serves a valid and sufficient public purpose, notwithstanding any incidental benefit accruing to any private person, entity, or entities.

Coffee County Environmental Services director Mike Thornton (center) commended two of his departmental employees Monday, June 10, during the Coffee County Commission meeting. Truck operators Shannon Phillips (left) and Gerry Mauldin (not pictured) participated in a Truck Road-eo event with others from across Alabama and Georgia. Phillips placed first in one category and second in another while Mauldin was also a first place finisher representing Coffee County. Thornton said he is very proud of the accomplishments of these two employees. He said they would officially be recognized at a state meeting later, but he wanted to recognize them before the county commission now. Commissioners also congratulated the men on the accomplishments and noted it is true testament of the good employees Coffee County has working for it day in and day out.

During the June council meeting, the New Brockton Town Council confirmed Selena Terrell (left) to take office for the District 5 council seat for the remainder of the current administrative term. She replaces Shirley Eads on the council. Eads recently resigned the post. Above, New Brockton Mayor Charles Schieffer presents Terrell with a town pin after she was confirmed to the council seat.

Coffee County BOE approves hires during meeting

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Board of Education met Thursday evening, June 6, for its regular monthly meeting, and a handful of employments for the upcoming school year were approved by the board.

Superintendent Kelly Cobb recommended the teacher employments, and board members approved her recommendations.

James Thompson was hired to be a teacher at Zion Chapel School for the upcoming school year while Amanda Jordan was employed through a TEAMS contract at Zion Chapel for the school year.

Rhonda Martin, John Burdeshaw and Ryan

Hussey were all hired as teachers for New Brockton Middle School for the 2024-2025 school year.

Also, regarding personnel, Ty Mock was approved for transfer from his social science teacher position at New Brockton Middle School to social science teacher at Kinston for the upcoming school year.

The meeting also found board members giving the go-ahead nod to the superintendent to begin negotiations to potentially sell a piece of land to New Greater Springfield Church, in New Brockton. If an agreement can be reached, it would be brought before the board for approval at that time.

The land the church wants to purchase is at the back of the church property now. The church wants to construct a building for its use on that piece of land.

The next regular meeting for the Coffee County Board of Education will be July 11th at 5:30 p.m. at the board office in Elba.

Due to the Juneteenth holiday Wednesday, June 19, The Elba Clipper will print next week's paper a day early. Therefore, the deadline for all news and advertising for the Thursday, June 20th, edition will be by noon on Monday, June 17th.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder
Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Cuzin Lou Lou, Sister and some friends enjoyed a "girls weekend" last weekend.

It was good medicine for the soul as there was plenty of laughs to go around during the trip. However, Lou Lou figured out real quick like that she has not desire to "be like everyone else" anymore when it comes to wardrobe.

The girls were attended a Lauren Daigle concert on Saturday night, and Lou Lou decided to get away from her normal "comfy" shoes to wear "cute" ones along with the others. Well...she was not thinking about the large amount of walking that would take place getting from the parking deck to the concert hall, and then back again afterwards!

It made matters even worse when Lou Lou parked the vehicle in a parking lot on the opposite side of the arena where they needed to enter!

Shortly after the haul to the arena began, the pain set in for Lou Lou's feet. At one point she had to stop, and take off said "cute" shoes, and walk barefooted for a bit. This is something Lou Lou NEVER does!!

By the time the group made it to the concert, Lou Lou felt like her feet had been in a full-out battle.

The walk back that night was not as bad as the walk to the concert...probably because the damage was done, but it still was not fun.

When the group returned to their rental for the night, Lou Lou assured them they could be a cute as they wanted from now on, but she would be wearing her tennis shoes!!

Being comfy and practical far outweighs "cute" in Lou Lou's book and is much, much better on the feet!

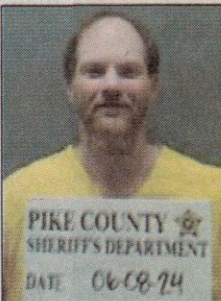

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling! Life is too short to not smile!

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba City School Board will meet this Thursday, June 13, to continue the discussions on the search for a new superintendent. Last week in this column, we noted that meeting was set for 12 noon; however, it has since been changed to 11 a.m. on Thursday morning. If you have a vested interest in this process and/or the schools and your time allows for it, we encourage you to attend. That is the best way to "be in the know" for this or any matter.

Recently, we have come to realize the "Inmate Roster" app utilized by the Coffee County Sheriff's Department might not be as transparent as we once believed it to be. A person that was formerly in law enforcement and a Coffee County Deputy was arrested last week in Enterprise on a felony charge. We arrived to the office last Thursday morning to the phone ringing. It was someone asking if we knew about the incident the night prior that landed the man in the Coffee County Jail. We were told that even though the man had been arrested by Enterprise Police and booked into the Coffee County Jail that his photo and information had not been uploaded to the jail roster on the app. A quick check confirmed what we had been told. So, we next made a phone call to Enterprise Police to verify an arrest had been made the night prior - again, it was confirmed our information was indeed correct. Later that morning, we received a call letting us know the suspect, identified as Juddston Bowers would have an arraignment hearing at the Coffee County Courthouse in Enterprise on Thursday afternoon. We chose to go to court to witness these proceedings firsthand. Bowers was charged with "certain persons forbidden to carry a firearm" - a felony charge from the incident the night prior where he allegedly broke the terms of a protection order in place against him. Circuit Judge Jeff Kelley set bond on the felony charge. He also noted that he believed Bowers had broken the terms of his bond from two other misdemeanor charges he had been arrested for last month in Coffee County (Elba Division). For some reason, we must have missed his mugshot on the app for that as well. Anyway, the judge revoked Bowers bond on the previous charges due to the new charges against him, which meant he was to remain incarcerated for now. While the Bowers' photo/info never made an appearance on the Coffee County Sheriff's Department app, he did show up on the Pike County Jail roster last weekend. It seems he is spending his jail time there now rather than Coffee County (we assume because of his former connections to Coffee County).

The interesting thing about the above story is we heard a couple different reasons "why" Bowers never appeared on the Coffee County app with any of his recent arrests. One was that it is "at the sheriff's discretion who and what is put on the app" while another had something to do with him being former law enforcement and not wanting to stir things up publicly. While we guess those answers are better than nothing at all, we do not agree with them. It is our opinion that "picking and choosing" who will be and who won't be on the app takes away from its transparency and validity. We'll let you decide for yourself how you feel about it. We are just passing along the information we have uncovered recently.

Father's Day is this upcoming Sunday. We consider ours to be one of the best, and we hope you feel the same about your own! Be sure to treat your dad extra special on his day. As we already know when it comes to Mother's Day, our parents will not be with us forever, so, we should cherish and enjoy every moment we do have with them here on earth! We plan to do just that with our dad!!

What Items of the Deceased Should You Bring to Services for Sharing?

Holding a memorial service or funeral for your loved one is an intimate and meaningful way to celebrate his or her life. It is also a powerful way to say goodbye and bring closure to their passing. To make the service even more personal and meaningful, consider bringing some of the deceased's personal items or mementos to share with others.

Bring respectful photos and images of the deceased. You may add them to a photo display to share with everyone who has come to pay tribute. Consider photos of them at life benchmarks, such as a graduation or retirement ceremony. Also consider the everyday things they did that made people smile. Share photos of them being the special person they were and help everyone in attendance remember them in that same way.

If your loved one was an avid fan of sports, music, literature, or any other following, consider bringing memorabilia that reflects this. If the deceased was a passionate football fan, bringing a jersey from their favorite team might be a good addition to the remembrance display.

A candle installation, a painting series, or a photo collection might be a powerful way to remember the deceased. Honoring them with items that were close to their heart, or are symbols of their life, can help to ease the process of saying goodbye.

If the deceased had earned awards or had been honored in any way, consider displaying their awards at the service. Such offerings will help enrich the display by illustrating some of their greatest strengths and achievements.

When bringing these items to share at the service, remember that the family of the deceased will most often take them back home. They are offerings you can present to the family that may ease the process and help them to remember their loved one in the best light possible.

Annual Drinking Water Quality Report

Jack Water System, Inc. January-December 2023

Is my water safe?

Last year, as in years past, your tap water met all U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) and the Alabama Department of Environmental Management (ADEM) drinking water health standards. Your local water officials vigilantly safeguard its water supplies and once again we are proud to report that our system has not violated a maximum contaminant level or any other water quality standards. We're pleased to present to you this year's Annual Drinking Water Quality Report. This report is designed to inform you about the quality water and services we deliver to you every day. Our constant goal is to provide you with a safe and dependable supply of drinking water. We want you to understand the efforts we make to continually improve the water treatment process and protect our water resources. We are committed to ensuring the quality of your water. Our water source is one groundwater well. The water we supply comes from the Clayton Aquifer. The Jack Water System also purchases water from the Pike County Water Authority. The Pike County Water Authority utilizes groundwater pumped from seven wells out of the Ripley Aquifer and the Tuscaloosa Aquifer. The water we provide to our customers requires no specialized treatment. However, chlorine is added to the water for disinfection purposes. This ensures the quality of water throughout our distribution system.

The Jack Water System routinely completes a water storage facility inspection plan and utilizes a Bacteriological Monitoring Plan and a Cross Connection Policy in place to insure good safe drinking water for our customers. The Jack Water System and Pike County Water Authority have both completed a Source Water Assessment Plan which is available at our offices for review. This report provides information about potential sources of contamination and is set up to help protect our source.

We want our valued customers to be informed about their water utility. If you want to learn more, please attend any of our regularly scheduled Board meetings. They are held on the first Monday of each month at the Zion Chapel Senior Citizens located at Highway 87 North, in Jack, and begin at 7:00 p.m.

Important Drinking Water Definitions:

Action Level (AL) - The concentration of a contaminant that triggers treatment or other requirements that a water system shall follow.

Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) - The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.

Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG) - The level of a contaminant in drinking water below, which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level (MRDL) - The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for control of microbial contaminants.

Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level Goal (MRDLG) - The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.

Millirems per year (mrem/yr) - Measure of radiation absorbed by the body.

Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) - Nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just noticeable to the average person.

Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/L) - One part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000. Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter (µg/L) - One part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000. Parts per trillion (ppt) or Nanograms per liter (ng/L) - One part per trillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000,000.

Parts per quadrillion (ppq) or Picograms per liter (pg/L) - One part per quadrillion corresponds to one minute in 2,000,000,000 years or one penny in $10,000,000,000,000.

Picocuries per liter (pCi/L) - Picocuries per liter is a measure of the radioactivity in water.

Treatment Technique (TT) - A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Threshold Odor Number (T.O.N.) - The greatest dilution of a sample with odor-free water that still yields a just-detectable odor.

Variances & Exemptions - ADEM or EPA permission not to meet an MCL or a treatment technique under certain conditions.

Explanation of reasons for variance/exemptions:

Based on a study conducted by ADEM with the approval of the EPA a statewide waiver for the monitoring of asbestos and dioxin was issued. Thus, monitoring for these contaminants was not required. The Jack Water System and the Pike County Water Authority routinely monitor for contaminants in your drinking water according to Federal and State laws. Unless otherwise noted, the data presented in the following tables show the results of our monitoring period of January 1st to December 31st, 2023.

GENERAL INFORMATION

All drinking water, including bottled drinking water, may be reasonably expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. It's important to remember that the presence of these contaminants does not necessarily pose a health risk. The EPA or ADEM requires us to monitor for certain contaminants less than once per year because the concentrations of these contaminants do not change frequently.

At high levels some primary contaminants are known to pose a health risks to humans. This table provides a quick glance of any primary contaminant detections.

Table of Secondary and Unregulated Contaminants
Secondary Drinking Water Standards are guidelines regulating contaminants that may cause cosmetic effects (such as skin or tooth discoloration) or aesthetic effects (such as taste, odor, or color) in drinking water. ADEM has Secondary Drinking Water Standards established in state regulations applicable to water systems required to monitor for the various components. Unregulated contaminants are those for which EPA has not established drinking water standards. The purpose of unregulated contaminant monitoring is to assist EPA in determining the occurrence of unregulated contaminants in drinking water and whether future regulation is warranted.

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and radioactive material, and it can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activities.

As you can see by the tables, our system had no monitoring violations of allowable limits of contaminants in drinking water. We're proud that your drinking water meets or exceeds all Federal and State requirements. We have learned through our monitoring and testing that some contaminants have been detected. The EPA has determined that your water IS SAFE at these levels. MCL's are set at very stringent levels. To understand the possible health effects described for many regulated contaminants, a person would have to drink 2 liters of water every day at the MCL level for a lifetime to have a one-in-a-million chance of having the described health effect.

Total Coliform: The Total Coliform Rule requires water systems to meet a stricter limit for coliform bacteria. Coliform bacteria are usually harmless, but their presence in water can be an indication of disease-causing bacteria. When coliform bacteria are found, special follow-up tests are done to determine if harmful bacteria are present in the water supply. If this limit is exceeded, the water supplier must notify the public by newspaper, television or radio. To comply with the stricter regulation, we have increased the average amount of chlorine in the distribution system.

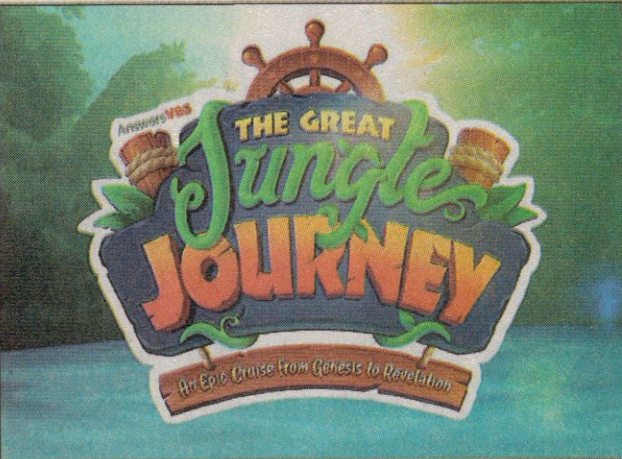

Lead in Drinking Water: "If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. The Jack Water System is responsible for providing high quality drinking water but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/safewater/lead>."

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. People who are immuno-compromised such as cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy, organ transplant recipients, HIV/AIDS positive or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. People at risk should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA (Environmental Protection Agency)/CDC (Center of Disease Control) guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline. All Drinking water, including bottled drinking water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Thank you for allowing us to continue providing your family with clean, quality water this year. In order to maintain a safe and dependable water supply we sometimes need to make improvements that will benefit all of our customers. These improvements are sometimes reflected as rate structure adjustments. Thank you for understanding. We at the Jack Water System work around the clock to provide top quality water to every tap. We ask that all our customers help us protect our water sources, which are the heart of our community, our way of life and our children's future.

Burn...or Turn
The Great Fire of London started in the bakery of Thomas Farriner just after midnight on September 2, 1666. The flames were soon out of control and the fire raged through the city for four days. If consumed thousands of homes, dozens of church buildings, and a cathedral. An eye-witness to the fire was puritan preacher Thomas Vincent. It inspired him to write a book entitled Fire and Brimstone in Hell, to Burn the Wicked, published in 1670. Some think the book became the touchstone for the "hellfire and brimstone" style of preaching that was to come in the decades ahead. We would hope that practitioners of this style of preaching sincerely desired repentance on the part of those listening (compare Matthew 3: 1,2)! That is more than can be said for Jonah. He resisted and resented being called to warn Nineveh. Jonah 4:1, 2 reveals that he wanted his audience to ignore his warning. Often pointed out is that Jonah is perhaps the only preacher in history who was upset because people heeded his message! Now think of the most ungodly, murderous group of people currently being reported in the news. Do you want those people

MONTHLY GATHERING...Several members of the Elba High School Class of 1966 and friends gathered Tuesday morning, June 11 at Ms. Linda's restaurant in downtown Elba for breakfast and fellowship. Lots of good food, laughter and fellowship was enjoyed by all. A few that normally attend the monthly gathering were out of town this week for doctor's appointments, visiting grandchildren, etc., but they were missed and hopefully are all in good health. Those in attendance were: Lewey Stephens, David Blackmon, Neal Hutto, John Lawless, Bobby Edmondson, Kenneth Baker, Lenore Anglin Tanner, Eddie Thompson, Butch Oggs, Terry Calhoun, and Harry Young.

I tear up every time I listen to the words of the old country song that say "When I get where I'm going, on the far side of the sky... I'm going to walk with my Daddy, and he'll match me step for step. I'll tell him how I've missed him every minute since he left, and then I'll hug his neck." Happy Father's Day to the best Dad ever!

 The Alabama High School Athletic Association selected its new director last week and while he said all the right things after being selected, the new AHSAA leader will face some tough times ahead as the world of sports changes, even at the high school level. While the discussion about NIL will no doubt be on his plate on day one, most coaches report they are more worried about the almost non-stop recruiting that is going on and how players now change schools on a whim due to promises from boosters and the almost free ride private schools are given to give scholarships to students from nearby public schools. I also hope the new director will form a committee to look into making changes that allow private schools to compete against public schools for state championships. In Georgia, all schools can compete against each other during the regular season, but once the playoffs start the schools move into separate divisions with the public schools only competing against themselves. Just because a private school joins the AHSAA doesn't mean it is now a public school! I really don't look for any major changes in the days and weeks to come in the AHSAA, but it needs to change or it may one day be just like the NCAA, which is now just a bunch of letters on a page.

 The trend of being paid for one's 'name, image and likeness' has been called the demise of amateur athletics at the college level, and the new world of NIL at the high school level made it to its 36th state last week when the Florida High School Athletic Association voted unanimously to approve a policy to allow high school athletes in the state to join what is basically a 'pay for play' job. Florida joined Georgia, Tennessee and Louisiana among southern states to allow NIL at the high school level, while Alabama, Texas and Mississippi are among states that are holding out. For any of you that don't understand what NIL really is, it simply means that in Florida and 35 other states high school students can now earn money from their name, image and likeness. A player can partner with a local business for an endorsement deal and make money without losing their amateur status. The adoption of NIL in high school will undoubtedly help private schools, larger high schools in populated areas, and of course, talented students that will shop their talents to the highest bidder, but as one Florida coach stated, in smaller towns and schools the various sports have to raise their own money just to help field the sport, which would make any thought of extra NIL funds almost impossible to find. I agree with another coach that said, "I think that sometimes just playing for the brother beside you and the school you attend and the school in your community is going away."

 I haven't watched a football game at Auburn's Jordan-Hare Stadium in decades and know that every seat in the stadium isn't the best, but does the stadium really need a new $25.7 million videoboard? In what is being billed as the most substantial step ever taken at the stadium, the Board of Trustees voted unanimously last week to construct the video board in the north endzone. The video board will 'improve the fan experience' at Jordan-Hare and make it easier for the students that are in the south endzone to watch replays without having to turn around to see the video board located behind them. Hey, of every college in the SEC can allocate $200 million to pay former players and put aside an extra $25 million per year to pay current players, what is a mere $25.7 million for a video board!

 In closing.... The Atlanta Braves are now nine games behind the Phillies in the standings and are showing no signs of breaking out of their season-long funk that has made the Braves just another team. I know they suffered a couple of major injuries to key players and also know they have in years past gotten hot after the All-Star break, but I believe their problem is all the long term contracts that have made every player on the team a multi-millionaire for the rest of their careers and has taken away the daily drive to get better. I'm still a Braves fan, but this team is just not getting any better and at best may sneak into the expanded playoffs as a wild card. In sports you either get better or get left behind, and the Braves are falling out of sight.
